

CUB SCOUT LEADER TRAINING
2009 - 2010

Cub Scout Leader Basic Training is designed to teach the basics of leading young boys in the Cub Scout program. This course offers training in the areas of conducting den and pack meetings, organizing special activities, advancement, pack organization, skits, games, and more. Your success and enjoyment in Cub Scouting is dependent upon good training so you will be knowledgeable and provide a quality program.

Basic Leader Training comprises two parts: 1) “This Is Scouting” for all unit-level leaders and 2) Leader Specific Training which is based on the unit leader’s level position. “This Is Scouting” is an introductory (also available on-line council website link) session highlighting the values, aims, history, funding, and methods of Scouting. It addresses how these aims and methods are reached in an age-appropriate style within Cub Scouting. Once a volunteer has a solid overview of the BSA’s value-based program, he or she can begin training for a specific Scouting position through Leader Specific Training.

New Leader Specific Training provides the specialized knowledge a new leader needs when assuming a leadership role as a Cubmaster, Den Leader, Tiger Leader, Webelo Leader, Assistant Leader, or Committee Member.

A Cub Scout leader is fully trained upon completing “This Is Scouting”, Leader Specific, and Youth Protection.

Youth Protection Training is an additional on-line council website link 1 hour of training and, if noted, is also included in scheduled training sessions. Each unit is required to have at least 1 individual as Unit Youth Protection Representative. However, it is highly recommended that all leaders take this session.

Please find listed below the date, time, and place of each Cub Scout Leader Training course to be held this Scout year. It is recommended that you attend the training held in your area if possible; however, you may attend any of the trainings below. Please contact indicated person to pre-register. The Central N.C. Council provides all training materials to you at no cost. There may be a fee incurred if lunch is provided.
